BYLAWS

General Federation of Women's Clubs Kentucky

ARTICLE I. Name

The name of the organization, a member of the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC), shall be General Federation of Women's Clubs Kentucky Incorporated, hereinafter referred to as GFWC Kentucky.

ARTICLE II. Object

The object and purpose of this organization, organized as a nonprofit corporation, shall be to bring into communication and to unite the women's clubs and like organizations throughout Kentucky for the purpose of mutual benefit; and for the promotion of their common interest in educational, industrial, literacy, artistic, and scientific culture as interpreted and implemented by established policy.

ARTICLE III. Members

Section 1. Membership Eligibility. Women's clubs, individuals, and organizations having national affiliation other than the General Federation of Women's Clubs are eligible for membership as prescribed in these bylaws.

- A. An applicant's purpose shall be germane to the object and goals of GFWC Kentucky and the General Federation of Women's Clubs.
- B. An applicant shall show that its organization requires no partisan political test for membership, that it is not a secret society, and that it does not tolerate, either by practice or teaching, any violations of state or national laws.
- C. GFWC Membership. Membership in GFWC Kentucky automatically entitles membership in the General Federation of Women's Clubs, except for associate member organizations and members-at-large.

Section 2. Classification. There shall be the following classes of membership:

- A.. Active membership. Active membership shall be Active Clubs (General, Cyber, Junior, and Juniette) composed of active per capita dues paying members
 - 1. Active Members. Active members of a club are GFWC Kentucky members who are counted in a club as of February 1st of the convention year for the purpose of determining the number of delegates to which the club is entitled at the GFWC Kentucky Annual Convention.
 - 2. Dual Membership. Members of a GFWC Kentucky club may belong to more than one club. They must designate one club as their active club for the purpose of determining the number of delegates to which the club is entitled at the GFWC Kentucky Annual Convention. GFWC and GFWC Kentucky dues are paid through the active club membership only. The GFWC Kentucky member may represent the member's active club at the convention, vote at the member's active club district's conference if selected as a delegate, and may only participate in GFWC and GFWC Kentucky contests through the member's active club. Dues for membership in a second club are only paid to the local club. If the second club is in another district, district dues should be paid to the additional district and attendance at district conferences may be attended as a clubwoman but not as a delegate.

- B. Associate Membership. Associate members shall be organizations that have national affiliation other than with General Federation of Women’s Clubs and that pay annual dues to GFWC Kentucky. An associate organization shall be entitled to one vote at its respective GFWC Kentucky District Conference and the GFWC Kentucky Annual Convention. Dues shall be as stated in these bylaws. An associate organization may become an active club upon application for active membership.
- C. Honorary Members.
 - 1. Past Presidents of GFWC Kentucky.
 - a. A Past President of GFWC Kentucky shall automatically receive the title of President Emeritus upon completion of her term of office as President.
 - b. Per capita dues paying Presidents Emeriti shall not be prohibited from making motions, voting, serving on committees, and holding appointed or elected office.
 - c. The induction ceremony shall be marked by the official presentation of the GFWC Kentucky Past President’s Pin.
 - 2. The title of honorary member, upon recommendation of the Board of Directors and a two-thirds vote at an annual convention, may be conferred upon a member or any individual who has rendered outstanding service to GFWC Kentucky or the Commonwealth of Kentucky.
 - 3. Honorary members shall have none of the obligations of GFWC Kentucky membership, but shall be entitled to all the privileges, except those of making motions, voting, serving on committees, and holding appointed or elected office. Honorary members with the exception of those paying per capita dues, shall not be counted in the quorum.
 - 4. Honorary membership shall not prohibit an honorary member from holding membership in an active club or being a member-at-large.
- D. State Clubs.
 - 2. Epsilon Sigma Omicron-Alpha Lambda Chapter (ESO) is a state-chartered society through GFWC International governed by a separate Constitution and Bylaws. There is a separate manual for ESO found in the Electronic Material (See ESO Manual Standing Rules 24.01.) Reporting for ESO falls under Education and Libraries Community Service Programs.

Section 3. Application for Membership.

 - 3. The initiation fee; and
 - 4. Two copies of the applicant's bylaws.

Section 4. Application Approval and Charter.

- A. A charter shall be presented to an active club applicant by the GFWC Kentucky President upon recommendation of the Membership Committee and majority vote of the Executive Committee.
- B. Revocation. Upon recommendation of the Executive Committee, a charter may be revoked by the GFWC Kentucky Board of Directors by a two-thirds ballot vote. Due notice of pending revocation shall be given to a club by certified mail with a return receipt requested, and a period of six months from the date of the receipt shall be allowed for a club to meet the requirements, before final action is taken to revoke the charter. Causes for revocation shall be failure to do but not limited to one or more of the following:
 - 1. Comply with GFWC Kentucky Bylaws;
 - 2. Bring bylaws into compliance with GFWC Kentucky Bylaws;
 - 3. Hold regular meetings; or
 - 4. Promote GFWC Kentucky programs.
- C. Notice of Revocation. In order to give the club an opportunity to provide evidence that cause for revocation no longer exists, or to appear at the Board of Directors meeting at which action on the revocation will be considered, notice shall be given to the club by certified mail with return receipt requested at least three months prior to such meeting.

Section 5. Good Standing. A member in good standing is one whose current dues have been paid in accordance with the provisions of these bylaws.

Section 6. Resignation. Resignation of any member club or member-at-large shall be submitted by letter to GFWC Kentucky Headquarters. No member's resignation shall be accepted until the current dues are paid.
